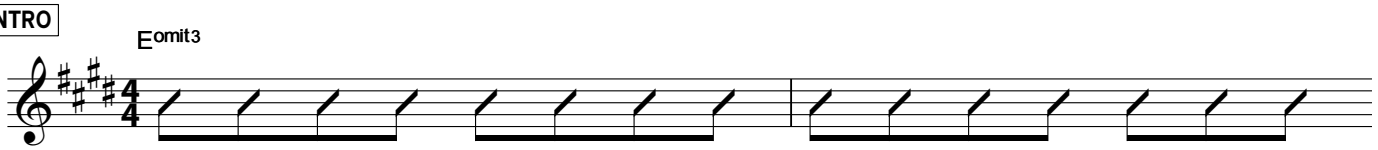
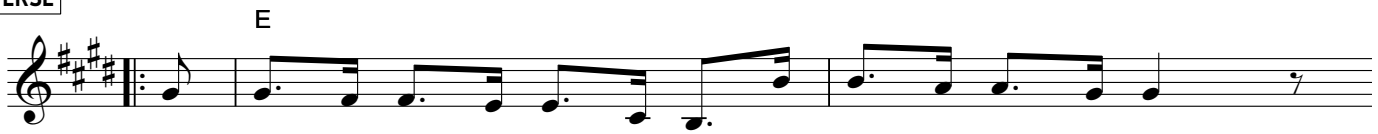
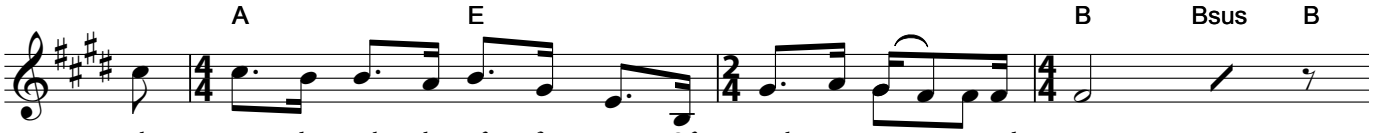
INTRO



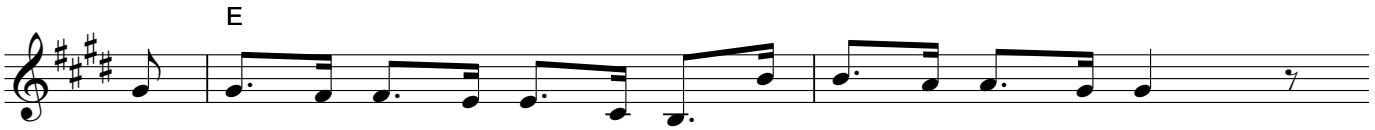
VERSE



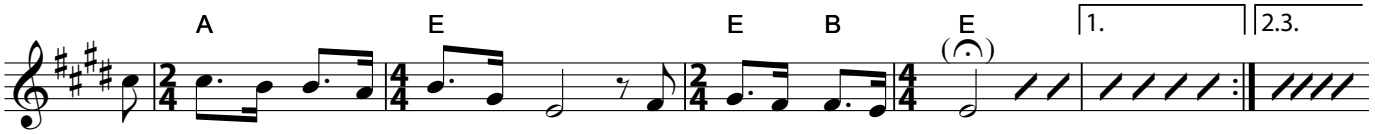
1. I'm stand - ing on the prom - ise of The Lamb at Cal - va - ry,
2. His word is ir - re - voc - a - ble, He will not take it back;
3. Now for the king - dom of the Lord I hun - ger and I thirst,
4. "Re - mem - ber me in Par - a - dise, Where You as - cend to - day,"



Who un - der - took the of - fic - es Of Proph - et, Priest, and King
What He has said was fin - ished there Is fin - ished now_ in fact.
And run to Him in such a way As trying to get there first;
A crim - i - nal be - side Him there Was ov - er - heard to say.

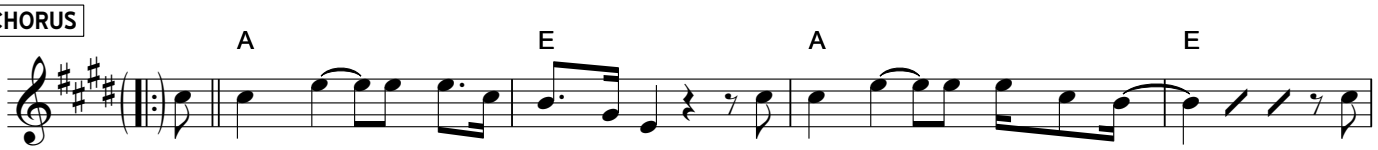


To live for - ev - er at the throne Of God to in - ter - cede;
The gates of Hell can - not pre - vail Where Christ has laid a claim;
I've count - ed what was gain as loss In view of great - er things;
He looked at him in char - i - ty And said with fi - nal breath,



He wrote in blood His Cov - e - nant: "This child be - longs to Me."
His love is ir - re - sist - i - ble_ And ev - er - more the same.
I have no bet - ter than a cross To car - ry to the King.
"My King - dom is es - tab - lished, friend, And you are made a guest." END

CHORUS



I'm stand - ing_ up - on the prom - is - es, Be - liev - ing_ in what I've heard.__ It pleased Him, in ag - o - ny of death, To give His fi - nal Word.__
