VERSE

G C Em D C

1. From Ad - am's re - bel - lion to Mo - ses' good law, Death reigned the mas - ter of men;
2. Still, God re - mem - bered His mer - cy in wrath And prom - ised a way of es - cape:

G C Em D C

With all of cre - a - tion held un - der its claw, A - wait - ing re - demp - tion from sin.
A Lamb to be killed_ on the peo - ple's be - half Would tram - ple the head of the snake.

Em C Em C D

But when the law thun - dered in earth - quake and fire, Weak as it was_ through our flesh,____
But though we would of - fer our best to the fire, And riv - ers of blood would be spilt,____

Em C D

It could not help con - quer our sin - ful de - sires, On - ly tight - ened the noose_ 'round our neck.
This could not help with our sin - ful de - sires, Nor a - tone for the depth_ of our guilt.

CHORUS

G D C G/B Am

When_ the full - ness of time had come, God sent us His on - ly Son,

G D C G D

Born of a wom - an, born un - der law, So that He might a peo - ple re - deem.

3. With joy set be - fore_ Him and love to dis - play, He laid a - side_ His great crown;

G C Em D C

To share in our na - ture as crea - tures of clay, He emp - tied Him - self and came down, And lived like a ser - vant with out an - y home, Car - ried our sor - rows and griefs,

Em C Em C D

Em C D

Was spit at re - ject - ed, de - spised and a - lone; Ac - curs - ed, He hung on a tree.
