

♩ = 132

Psalm 1

How Blessed Is the Man

CAPO III

Adapted for singing by Jody Killingsworth

INTRO

Em - - - | - - - - | - - - - | - - - -

VERSE 1

Em
 How blessed is the man who does not
 C D Em
 Walk in the counsel of the wicked;
 Em
 And where the boastful sinners talk
 C D Em
 Will he refuse to stand;
 Em
 He doesn't join with men who scoff,
 C D Em
 He dare not even sit among them,
 Em
 But his delight is in God's Law,
 C D Em - - - | - - - -
 It is his hope and prayer.

CHORUS

C G B7 Em
 In the Law he meditates
 C G B7 Em
 In the Law he meditates
 C G B7 Em
 In the Law he meditates
 C G B7 Em - - - | - - - -
 In the ni—ght and in the day

VERSE 2

Em
 He's planted like a tree that's rooted
 C D Em
 By the streams of living water,
 Em
 That bears in season its good fruit
 C D Em
 For other souls to share;
 Em
 Its leaves won't die away or wither;
 C D Em
 All he tries to do will prosper,
 Em
 For his delight is in God's Law,
 C D Em - - - | - - - -
 It is his hope and prayer.

CHORUS

C G B7 Em
 In the Law he meditates
 C G B7 Em
 In the Law he meditates
 C G B7 Em
 In the Law he meditates
 C G B7 Em - - - | - - - -
 In the ni—ght and in the day

VERSE 3

Em
 The wicked are not so, they're like the
 C D Em
 Chaff the autumn winds will scatter;
 Em
 When judgment starts to blow
 C D Em
 They'll meet the fury of the Day.
 Em
 The righteous God will know, He'll see them
 C D Em
 On to everlasting harbor;
 Em
 The wicked, though, not so, God's wrath
 C D Em - - - | - - - -
 Will drive them far away.

CHORUS

C G B7 Em
 In the Law he meditates
 C G B7 Em
 In the Law he meditates
 C G B7 Em
 In the Law he meditates
 C G B7 Em - - - | - - - -
 In the ni—ght and in the day

CHORUS

C G B7 Em
 In the Law we'll meditate
 C G B7 Em
 In the Law we'll meditate
 C G B7 Em
 In the Law we'll meditate
 C G B7 Em - - - | - - - -
 In the ni—ght and in the day

