VERSE 1

Am C
Lord, we confess our numerous faults;
D F
How great our guilt has been,
Am C
How vain and foolish all our thoughts,
D F
How all our lives were sin.
Am C
But, O my soul, forever praise,
D F
Forever love His name
Am C
Who turns your feet from dangerous ways
D F — | F —
Of folly, sin, and shame.

VERSE 3

Am C
Now through the purchase of His death
D F
Who hung upon the tree,
Am C
The Spirit is sent down to breathe
D F
On such dry bones as we.
Am C
Raised from the dead, we live anew;
D F
And justified by grace,
Am C
We shall appear in glory, too,
D F
And see our Father's face.

VERSE 2

Am C
'Tis not by works of righteousness
D F
Which our own hands have done,
Am C
But we are saved by God's free grace
D F
Abounding through His Son.
Am C
'Tis from the mercy of our God
D F
That all our hopes begin;
Am C
Here by the water and the blood
D F — | F —
Our souls are washed from sin.
